

SOMDI Society of Medicolegal Death Investigators, Inc.™

OVERVIEW OF THE APPLICATION PROCESS

The Society of Medicolegal Death Investigators (SOMDI) is a professional association that has been created exclusively for medicolegal death investigators (MLDI) who conduct investigations to assist in the determination of an individual's cause and manner of death in violent, suspicious, sudden and/or unexpected deaths. Eligible for membership are investigators employed by medicolegal jurisdictions. Also eligible are current certificants in good standing with the American Board of Medicolegal Death Investigators (ABMDI).

MEMBERSHIP CLASS: There is one class of membership: Individual

APPLICATION FEE AND ANNUAL DUES :

SOMDI does not charge pro-rated membership dues, the year you are approved as a SOMDI member; you will only be charged the $25 application fee. SOMDI's Annual Membership Dues will be invoiced December 15 for the upcoming year.

APPLICATION FEE: There is a non-refundable application fee of $25.00 USD

The required $25 USD application fee must be paid at the time of the application submission. The application fee is a one-time fee.

ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP FEE: Annual membership fee is $70.00

Please read the Application Instructions & Requirements carefully to avoid a delay in the processing and review.

SOMDI is a GREEN organization. An average American creates about 4.5 pounds of trash per person, per day, and 30% of that is paper. In addition to the environmental benefits of using less paper and less energy to transport it all, going paperless will save time and clutter.

The SOMDI application, payment process and SOMDI communication are all on-line.

Applications are reviewed for acceptance once all the required documentation has been received.

You will need the following information to complete your on-line application:

- Personal Data
- Employment Data: current employer
- Educational Data
- Resume (CV) – (File Format: either Word or PDF)
 - (for resume/CV assistance: www.resume-resource.com)
- 2 References: Current Supervisor & Current or Past Death Investigator

If you are in good standing with the professional certification board, The American Board of Medicolegal Death Investigators (ABMDI) you will not be required to provide SOMDI with 2 References.

WHAT WOULD YOU GAIN FROM JOINING SOMDI?

- You will gain access to state of the art, practical medicolegal death investigator training and educational opportunities via courses, meetings and distance learning programs designed to deal specifically with topics that are frequently encountered by MLDIs
- Membership would provide you with the opportunity to assist in the development of MLDI practice standards and input to the current national guidelines
- A SOMDI LinkedIn group has been created so that you will be able to share ideas, ask questions, discuss issues affecting MLDIs, assist others by providing them with your experiences and provide you with information regarding current job openings in our field
- By joining, you may become an active participant in this new movement to further improve death investigator capability and upgrade our professional status
- SOMDI will become an influential MLDI advocate to local, state and federal agencies for professional training, educational and certification funding. SOMDI will not function as a collective bargaining unit
- SOMDI will afford you the opportunity to play an integral part in the first professional organization designed to include all medicolegal death investigators in Coroner and Medical Examiner systems
- SOMDI will provide you with educational events where you can acquire continuing education credits for your recertification with ABMDI.

SOMDI began operations in March 2011 and is has a principal address in St. Louis, MO and a satellite office in Big Rapids, MI. It has been created by highly experienced, veteran medicolegal death investigators who recognize the need for medicolegal death investigators to establish an organization tasked to train, educate, represent, monitor and advocate for our profession.
